This section is for you to request anything you would like us to do or not to do for your hire: Note: requests may not always be carried out... but you can still ask anyway.

Here are some examples others customers have asked for:

- Do not use your lights and sirens when you arrive.
- When you arrive can a fireman just walk straight in the house and give the hen a fireman's lift out the house to the engine.
- When you arrive make as much noise and visual effects as you can.
- When we reach our destination can a fireman carry the hen into the restaurant.
- Can we stop by my grans house for some photographs.
- Can you give the hen a firemans lift and pose at the side of the fire engine so we can get some good photos.

Personalise your hire with your own surprise gifts, music, movies or photo slide show.

GIFTS & SURPRISES:

You can also arrange for additional party items to be laid out inside the fire engine limo as a special surprise for your party when they first climb onboard, items such as hen party outfits, extra alcohol, birthday presents, embarrassing photos or even just some extra party accessories.
